Condemnation of the so-called presidential elections in occupied Abkhazia

As delivered by Chargé d'Affaires Katherine Brucker to the Permanent Council, Vienna
February 27, 2025

The United States does not acknowledge the so-called presidential election and run-off election in the occupied region of Abkhazia, Georgia, on February 15 and March 1, respectively. We do not recognize their legitimacy. We reiterate our strong support for Georgia's sovereignty and territorial integrity within its internationally recognized borders.
