OSCE QUARTERLY SELECTIONS 2/2014

APRIL – JULY 2014

The six following groups have been designed with view to help readers to navigate among the “official document” collections available on the web. Each group is chronologically organized and provides links to individual documents as well as their language variations (when available):

I. OSCE PERIODICALS AND PUBLICATIONS

II. DECISIONS, CONSENSUS DOCUMENTS AND JOURNALS OF THE DAY yielded by regular OSCE negotiating and decision making bodies (e.g. document groups for individual plenary meetings of the Permanent Council and the Forum for Security Co-operation and their joint meetings).

III. SELECTED STATEMENTS, INTERVENTIONS, REGULAR REPORTS AND CONTRIBUTIONS made by the OSCE Chairperson-in-Office and High Officials representing OSCE structures, institutions and field activities.
Statements and speeches by representatives of OSCE participating States delivered at regular negotiating and decision-making bodies can be found on the OSCE public web under the document group created for each PC and FSC session.

IV. CONSOLIDATED SUMMARIES – (non-consensus) REPORTS AND AGENDAS released by/at OSCE meetings, events, conferences, seminars and workshops.

V. ELECTION OBSERVATION REPORTS prepared by various types of election missions, as well as statements or invitations concerning elections in participating States.

VI. SELECTED INTEREST AND REFERENCE DOCUMENTS. This section includes various items relating to events or activities within the three OSCE dimensions (some of which may have taken place in the past months or years, but their results have been released recently)

60	9 May	Warsaw/ The Hague	ODIHR/ HCNM	REPORT on the Human Rights and Minority Rights Situation in Ukraine, as the result of the Human Rights Assessment Mission to Ukraine (HRAM), covering the period from March to April, as prepared by the Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (ODIHR) and the High Commissioner on National Minorities (HCNM). The HRAM conducted by ODIHR established that a number of serious human rights violations occurred during the reporting period. As a rule, these violations did not precede but rather accompanied and followed the emergence of various armed groups, first and foremost in Crimea and eastern and southern Ukraine. The HCNM found that the situation concerning minority rights has not changed significantly in recent months, although underlying shortcomings regarding both the legal framework for rights of persons belonging to national minorities and implementation of its provisions remain. 114	3–6 March	Belgium	ODIHR/ NAM	NEEDS ASSESSMENT MISSION REPORT on the federal elections scheduled for 25 May in Belgium. On 30 January, the Permanent Representation of Belgium to the OSCE invited the OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (OSCE/ODIHR) to observe the 25 May federal parliamentary elections. In accordance with its mandate, the OSCE/ODIHR undertook a Needs Assessment Mission (NAM) to Brussels from 3 to 6 March. The purpose of the mission was to assess the pre-election environment and the preparations for the elections. Based on this assessment, the NAM should recommend whether to deploy an OSCE/ODIHR election-related activity for the forthcoming elections, and if so, what type of activity best meets the identified needs. 147	23 June	Kosovo	OMIK	REPORT on Municipal Language Compliance in Kosovo. The OSCE conducts regular monitoring, reporting and advocacy for the full realization of the language rights of all communities in Kosovo. Analysing practices at the local level, this report reveals that more than seven years after its promulgation, the Law on the Use of Language remains only partially implemented due to insufficient human and financial resources, often accompanied by lack of sufficient understanding of obligations and/or lack of political will.	(see link)	http://www.osce.org/kosovo/120010
148	27 June	Kosovo	OMIK	ASSESSMENT of Local-level Mechanisms for the Protection and Promotion of Communities' Rights and Interests in Kosovo. This report assesses the four local-level mechanisms for the protection and promotion of communities' rights and interests – the municipal office for communities and return, the communities committee, the deputy mayor for communities and the deputy municipal assembly chairperson for communities – including a review of the legal and policy framework and of establishment and practical functioning.	(see link)	http://www.osce.org/kosovo/120343
149	1 July	Slovak Republic	ODIHR	OPINION on Certain Provisions of the Draft Act on Land-Use Planning and Construction of the Slovak Republic. The scope of this paper covers only certain provisions of the Draft Building Act, submitted for review. The Opinion does not address issues relating to the technical aspects of land use planning and building legislation and only analyzes the provisions of the Draft Building Act, in so far as they are relevant from a human rights perspective.	(see link)	http://www.osce.org/odihr/121373
150	18 July	Ukraine	ODIHR	OPINION on Two Draft Anti-Corruption Laws of Ukraine. This paper is analysis the draft "Law of Ukraine on the National Bureau of Anti-Corruption Investigations" (hereinafter the 'NBACI draft Law') and the draft "Law of Ukraine on National Anticorruption Service" (hereinafter the 'NACS draft Law') against the background of their compatibility with relevant international standards and OSCE commitments.	(see link)	http://www.osce.org/odihr/121526
151	27 July	Montenegro	ODIHR	OPINION on the Draft Law on Compensation of Damages for Victims of Criminal Acts in Montenegro. The scope of this Opinion covers the Draft Law submitted for review and focuses on aspects relating to the establishment and functioning of a state compensation scheme/fund covered by the Draft Law. Thus limited, it does not constitute a full and comprehensive review of the entire legal and institutional framework pertaining to the full and effective reparation of victims of criminal acts in Montenegro. It must be highlighted that the upcoming OSCE/ODIHR Opinion on the legal framework on preventing and combatting violence against women and domestic violence in Montenegro will further address other aspects pertaining to the reparation of victims of violence against women and domestic violence.
